Dear Exporter,

The attached certificate has been issued under the Australian Meat and Live-stock Industry Act 1997 and will remain in force until the date specified on the certificate unless the holder of the Export Licence requests cancellation or contravenes the requirements of the Act or its subordinate regulations.

It should be noted that the holder of the Export Licence is responsible for notifying the department within 7 days if any of the following notifiable events occur:

- ♦ the licence holder ceases to carry on the meat export business to which the licence relates;
- ♦ the licence holder, or a person in management or control of the business, is convicted of an offence against the law of the Commonwealth, a State or Territory;
- ♦ a person who has been described to the Secretary, in the application for the licence, as a person in management and control of the business ceases to be a person in management and control of the business;
- ♦ a person who has not been described to the Secretary, in the application for the licence, as a person in management and control of the business begins to be a person in management and control of the business;
- ♦ the licence holder receives notice that the licence holder is no longer regarded as an approved supplier of meat by a foreign government importing authority, instrumentality or organisation;
- ♦ a change of licence holder's name;
- ♦ a change in the scope or status of the licence holder's AUSMEAT Accreditation; and or if the licence holder is a corporation;
- ♦ a court orders that the corporation be wound up;
- ♦ a resolution is passed that the corporation be wound up voluntarily;
- if the licence holder is an individual;
- ♦ he or she becomes bankrupt;
- ♦ he or she executes a deed or arrangement, or a deed of assignment under part X of the Bankruptcy Act 1966;
- if a licence holder is a partnership that operates the meat export business; circumstances are also prescribed:
- ♦ the membership or partnership is changed;
- ♦ or the partnership is dissolved.

Details of any notifiable event should be in writing;
